

A VIRTUAL EVENT WITH

CHRISTOPHER C. GORHAM

AUTHOR OF THE CONFIDANTE

MARCH 27, 2023 1 PM EST · FREE

Christopher C. Gorham discusses The Confidante: The Untold Story of the Woman Who Helped Win WWII and Shape Modern America in a virtual event led by the staff of Barr Memorial Library. Anna ("The Confidante") Rosenberg was a trusted advisor to both Presidents Roosevelt and Truman during World War II. She played important roles in both administrations and guided the direction of the G.I. Bill.

Christopher C. Gorham is a lawyer and teacher of modern American History at Westford Academy, outside Boston. His writings have appeared in The Washington Post and in online journals.

SCAN THE QR CODE WHICH WILL TAKE YOU TO THE EVENT

